

MASTER THE MOVE: BURPEE BATTLE-ROPE SLAM

You probably already know and love (or hate!) burpees—here's a battle-rope twist on the classic move to make it even more fun. You're welcome.

(A) Stand with knees slightly bent and feet hip-width apart. Hold the end of a rope in each hand at arm's length in front of hips with hands shoulder-width apart. Raise both arms up, then slam the ropes into the ground.

(B) Drop hands to floor, kick feet back, and lower chest to floor.

(C) Push up on hands and jump feet forward toward the ropes. Stand up and repeat. (Add a jump after standing for more of a challenge!)

QUESTIONS FOR HEIDI

1

WHAT'S IN YOUR GYM BAG?

A lacrosse ball, to roll over my muscles and loosen up my battered body.

2

WHAT DO YOU EAT FOR BREAKFAST?

The same thing every day: an open-faced egg sandwich on a Sandwich Thin with some avocado, a slice of cheese, and hot sauce.

3

WHAT INSPIRES OR MOTIVATES YOU?

It's that trust from my clients that really motivates me—the fact that they trust me enough to let me show them what is possible within their bodies.

HOW DO YOU ENCOURAGE CLIENTS WHO ARE STRUGGLING?

I believe in the power of the mind, so I'm very much a mental coach. I'm big about telling all my clients to disregard any [internal negative] narrative they've got going on and let me walk them through what's possible—there's always the availability of one more rep or one more second if you relax the mind and reverse the narrative.

5

WHAT'S YOUR MANTRA?

"What would you do if you knew you wouldn't fail?" You can apply that to every facet of your life.

6

WHAT DO YOU DO TO TREAT YOURSELF?

Acupuncture is relatively new to me, but every time I go, it provides me with such a sense of solace and zen in a way that I'm not used to, so I'm trying to make that a quarterly treat to myself.
